

A few wiffs of the Spirit

A few wiffs we encounter of Him if we know Him not in His natural element of Spirit and truth. He is the "behold I stand at the door and knock". Where? The door of your heart. The place you need to let Him in, in spirit and truth. If you expect Him in physical content He will come upon you like a thief. If you do not understand the gift in Christ, the giver is a taker. "He comes and His gift is with Him to award each one according to their faith or faithlessness".

If the light in you is darkness, how great is that darkness? Well simply put. The darkness that appears light is the counterfeit of the eternal light. The eternal light that shines in the heart of every man that takes no carnally visible form has a duplicate expectation for the carnally minded. "With all lying signs and wonders if possible to deceive the elect". Why? Because it uses the same scriptures but manifests in a physical way.

The scriptures that are meant by God to define and describe Himself in His element of spirit. These are subverted to appease the carnal senses and they call it a 2nd coming.

This is an anti Christ, the counterfeit, is the light that uses scripture to establish an earthen parallel of the invisible eternal, being the "Kingdom prepared before the foundations of the world". They say no it is now being built. They use scripture and develop an illusion. "For This reason God gave them a delusion that they may be condemned for those who reject the truth. As Christ said my kingdom is not from here or else I would fight. These Second Coming purveyors say Christ is coming again to fight and disregard the word already spoken. They regard a carnal concept presented by the Illuminati founded on distortions, murders and lies set in place in modern day Israel saying the scriptures have yet to be fulfilled. They fill the unsuspecting souls with an illusion that will never be for "all the earth and its works shall be consumed by fire for the eternal to remain. For the counterfeit anti-Christ to be ectinguished. Then and only then does righteousness stand unhindered.

How great is that darkness? They are blinded by the god of this age. The coming according to satan with all lying signs. Did not Satan say in his heart I will Ascend on high and become like the most high I will become and sit on the sides of the North in the very place of the congregation.

For the light shines into darkness and the darkness did not comprehend it. Do you? He came to His own and His own did not accept Him. That is right. Those who claim to know God deny Him in this way. "They turn the Glory of the invisible, incorruptible God into the image of a city and kingdom of earthen elements cut out of stone with man's devising for a man named Jesus".

The lie that deceives is perfectly palatable to the carnal senses. This is why it cannot deceive the elect. We having been born again of Word and Spirit have "ears to hear and eyes to see" of a different nature. We spit out the lie as unpalatable to us who "worship God in spirit and truth ". His words are spirit and life" and in Him we live. In Christ. We are in the world but not of the world. Not of time and matter.

The God of this age comes and he has nothing in Me. This age is elementally different just like the fish and the birds. As different as ether is from stench.

The creator does not become the created. Oh contrare. We become godly.

God broke Himself down in word form for our spiritual consumption to become that word and fulfill the verse that says "will not return void

In the beginning God. That's it. There was nothing else there. We who know God know this. There is nothing but Him. There is nothing to talk about but him. Not a future Jesus but the eternal savior.

John the apostle wrote. You know Him who was in the beginning. If that from the beginning abide in you". It is not an end time thing at all. John said "we are in the last days". We are not waiting for them. For the time us coming when time will be no more. When that which is unjust shall remain unjust and those who have down and reaped of the spirit retain the eternal goods they have acquired. Them everyone will be known for what they have believed. Your reward is what you have acquired and there are many poor blind and naked. When the light of this age is defused and the contrasts cease, many will see they have been running to the wrong light. They set their sights on the end. But we are those from the beginning.

- The Elect.
