

For The Elect: Christ was born King, and many other things.

The scripture say that Christ was born King. He did not have to earn that right and He did not have to go to school to learn this right. He was "born King". And he was born a king, but not any King, but the King of Kings. It is because He was Word of the Father, His express image before He became flesh and dwelt among us, that He is King because He is the true heir of all that the Father has, being His invisible attributes and Kingdom that is "not of this age". This is what qualifies Him to be King. And not some supposed king of the Jews, but "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS". And for that matter the one and only true exact image of the Father. Even as He stated during His short tenor on earth "I and the Father are one". Totally congruent and inseparable as are all the lower level carnal representations meant only to teach us of God. What we see in the old law and the prophets and throughout the new covenant that we learn to raise up to their proper domain "in spirit and truth" in our understanding.

It was pilot who asked him "are you the king of his Jews" to which he said "it is as you say". When pressed on this issue He did not deny He was King. He just answered and said "my kingdom is not of this age for if my kingdom was of this age I would send Legions and they would fight for me but my kingdom is not from here". For us who know, He was speaking about His Throne eternal in the heavens. Not of the created realm. Not of this world.

You see Christ as king is of a kingdom that precedes and supersedes and completely permeates all ages. For "it is In Him we live and dwell and have our existence." He does not have to become of earn anything or it could not be said of Him that "He is the same yesterday and today". You see He is an unchangeable timeless reality that exist only in spirit and truth. As a matter of fact, if you erase all the creation of the 1st 6 days, be it the earth, the heavens and all the stars and galaxies plants and animals. And even the invisible angels, powers and principalities and rulers of darkness are under His domain or He would not be the same, and He would not be "King of kings and Lord of Lords" for there would be a power out of His control.

When God first made things after each day He looked at what He did and said "it is good". And upon the completion of all things on the 6th and final day He said "it was good" then He thought of all the variables and all the possibilities of all the entities he had made including angels and men, then He said "It is very good". Like looking at a big chess board He played out every scenario and every move that anything of all creation, man and angels could say do or think and God said to Himself "I have this in control". "I got this".

God is not looking down on planet earth, wringing His hands wondering how He is going to regain control and wrap this up age. Everything is meticulously laid out according to His standard of perfection that is far above our comprehension, as are all the mysteries of God. This is why we learn only by revelation. For the time has come when I will tell you plainly about the Father". And so He does and He does not need the old covenant law or prophets to do so. This greater salvation we talk about exists only in spirit and truth, which is our calling.

We who are joint heirs and of those who are "least in the Kingdom are greater than all the law and prophets" it is us who can connect the dots to help you understand the things that were seen dimly that the prophets could only elude to. We clarify what they were trying to convey in their carnal nature to those with a carnal nature. But we are born from above of word and spirit to occupy the heavenlies. Christ told the disciples "many righteous men and the Prophets have desired to see what you see, and hear what you hear and could not. We are the elect who know these things. And we see God face to face because Christ said "he who has seen Me has seen the Father". That is us the elect of God. This is our rightful due gifted to us from the Father and paid for by the blood of Christ through the eternal spirit of things that are now in force. Something that another Jesus cannot do. He still needs to become king. Poor guy. And he is relying on the Jews of our day to pull this off. Woe are those who have that savior. He needs a lot of help. It is an insult to the living God. we gladly except the gift of God in Christ Jesus. God Himself

Daniel said this of Christ that "He raises up Kings and brings down Kings and gives wisdom to the wise". Showing that His type of Kingship and Kingdom was above creation because he could orchestrate all the kingdoms of the earth like a chess player does with the pieces on a board.

Romans 9.¹⁷ For the Scripture says to the Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth."¹⁸ Therefore He has mercy on whom He wills, and whom He wills He hardens.

Yes Christ was born King and once again he did not have to earn this right for this reason he came into the world and he set the record straight. He is the king that laid aside his deity to come and retrieve his disciples. And in John 13 He displays this very well.³ Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God,⁴ rose from supper and laid aside His (Royal)garments, took a towel (a rag we call the flesh) and girded

Himself.⁵ After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.¹² So when He had washed their feet, taken His (Royal) garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?"

To this we say yes. You Lord have just shown us your eschatology. You have shown us your end time scenario. You became flesh and dwelled among us. You finished all the law and the prophets, you established the new covenant, your last work on earth. Why? "Because I go to My Father and you see Me no more" (like a second coming) And being assured that you have granted the elect access to your "Kingdom at Hand" being at our proverbial fingertips. And because "You are the way to the Father", We follow you Lord and fulfill your prayer to the Father of Glories saying "Father, that they whom you have given me may be with Me where I am. To behold My glory that the world may know. And Father. The glory you have given Me I have given them. That they may be one as we are one. So we are. We are as one as Christ who said "I and the Father are one. So we too join these."²² But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels,²³ to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, (Hebrews 12.22+) we are part of the symposium of the many, the congruence into one. Reconciled to the Father as Paul pleaded "Be ye reconciled to the Father. God was In Christ reconciling the world to Himself and has given us this ministry of reconciliation.

Boom! That is the whole purpose of our sojourn-ship here on earth. It is to reach this point, our purpose, our goal and the conclusion of the gospel.¹³ till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; To become godly. Godlike. Like God.

Who does the Father of spirits beget? Invisible ones. Paul said "we are sown a physical body and raised a spiritual one" this is us. Who does the Father of Glories beget? Glories like Himself. We are the Glories glorified with the Father seated at His own right hand. Bone of His bone and flesh of His flesh born of the spirit and word to be "a kind of firstfruits of His creation". Not a 6 day creation but an eternal one clothed in the very invisible attributes of the invisible God. We have learned to "put on Christ" in this way. We put off the old at baptism by the working of faith and are raised in newness of life also by faith. We who have begun in the spirit perfect nothing in the old creation. It is from faith to faith. And you know what? Each and every transition happens by the Holy Spirit in the twinkling of an eye. Completely un-decernable to the human senses. We have ears to hear and eyes to see of another nature to understand this.

Stop

So here is something we have to say about him who was born King. He was also born many other things. He did not have to earn a right or to become something as though he was not for "Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

With Mary she said yes Lord I know that you will raise him up on the last day, speaking about Lazarus. And Christ reply to her? "Mary I am the resurrection". It is not an event or a series of events like the 2nd coming seekers suppose. The resurrection is a person. Which is why paul said "since you are raised with Christ, seek the things above". His things. And "Since we were buried with Him in death by baptist. We are also raised with Him to newness of life. As Isaiah put it "With My dead body they shall arise", and so we did.

So Christ could have also told Mary, I am not just the resurrection. I am also the last day". Just as He said to the Pharisees "Abraham rejoiced to see My Day. He saw it and was glad". Christ is that day. Because even as we define an earthen day by the sun with 24 hour increments, The Lords day is lit by the light of the lamb and has no need for the sun or the moon. In whom is no darkness at all. No nights. This is how we walk in the light as He is in the light. Because He is that light. He is the radiance of God. He is the Glory of God. He wears it for our transfiguration (2 Corinthians 3.18). The source of all light. The light Paul encountered on the road to Emaus being "7 times brighter than the sun". Have you had this encounter? It is the only true light that shines in the heart of every man (John 1)

So for those who are waiting for the "day of the lord" to appear as defined by the sun, as if God is on hold, as if God is limited to these, don't understand what the true day is. It is the day "in Christ". And if "we walk in the light as He is light", we are in that day. Wasn't it the condemnation to those under the law stuck in the wilderness who rejected this call with the Lord saying of His Sabbath, His day without 24 hour increments, His day that has no night, The Lords day, The day of The Lord:

4 Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. ² For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them,^[a] not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.³ For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said:

“So I swore in My wrath,
‘They shall not enter My rest,’”^[b]

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. ⁴ For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: “And God rested on the seventh day from all His works”; ^[c] ⁵ and again in this place: “They shall not enter My rest.”

You see there are many that thought that when Christ came into the world he had to earn something in order to be something. So they don't think anybody was raised from the dead until Christ was raised from the dead first. But he showed himself as the resurrection before he ever went to the Cross showing for us that he did not have to become anything for the Eternal one cannot change and cannot earn he already owns.

You see there was never a person a place a provision or a promise from God that Christ was not. Why? Because Christ is the Fulfillment of all things. Be at Shiloh, be at the son of David, be it that prophet, be at that Messiah, being the high priest in the order of Melchizedek be it "that day". These are all just descriptive of Himself, there is no provision from the father that is not Christ. Everything they were looking for was wrapped up into the person people call Jesus Christ.

Scripture says that "in him, meaning Christ, dwells the fullness of the godhead body". That is why "all things are in Christ"

Scripture says of Christ that he comes and his reward is with him. That is because the reward is himself. With Moses he had asked the Lord what should I tell the people whom you are who sent me. The Lord replied tell him that I am. Meaning I am fill in the blank. Whatever they were looking for in whatever they needed they would find in the sun who's a duplicate of the father. Even as with the disciples when they were on the boat in the waters got choppy and Rocky to where they thought they would die, as soon as they received Christ into their boat, their vessel, they found out they were already where they needed to be. They just needed a renewed understanding as do some of us. The disciples were confused when they were in the boat but as soon as they were in Christ there was nothing confusing at all. End of The Great I Am? When the Pharisees were inquiring him as to who he was he said that "I am". When the soldiers that came with Judas to take Christ he said the same words I am in the men fell over backwards.

Epilogue:

There are many caught up in and infatuated with the Jerusalem of our day. They anticipate the Messiah and King to come back and live in their city after they have it refurbished for Him. They say "we have a chief cornerstone ready to lay". We have found a red heifer and are ready to commense the sacrifices to please our king.
