

Law 5. Vessels Filled to the Full

We whose vessels are filled to the full have received the full filling. It is enough that a student be like his master like his teacher however a student is not better than his teacher but maybe equal and so we are. He who said that a greater than John the Baptist is here is Among Us. For John was the culmination of the law and the prophets and we stand upon their works. So think it not strange that we speak things more clearly in easily understood to those who have eyes to see and ears to hear of a different nature. Of a spiritual one. Even as Christ is hit said his words are spirit and they are life, this is what we have. This is who we have. Christ laid down his life for us to have life and we do not scoff at the gift. We do not draw out or lengthen it as though the gift is not enough in need something else be said.

It is us who correctly view the Gathering. It is not a collection of carnal vessels but us who have carnal vessels who collect the invisible things of God and assemble them in ourselves. God's collection in gathering is his own individual attributes, as we become then we are gathered to in like manner.

We have accepted Christ are the fulfilled. We are the Phil to the full.

Even as it was displayed in the old Covenant that the women would go to the well and drop down their pales into the water and draw them up full to set them on their shoulders. In this way we are the filled vessels parallel to the head of the filler in share in the exact tude of who they are. Our vessels are filled to be poured out to be filled again that you too may have life.
