

Law intro. All Israel rejects the promise to Abraham

Israel having spent 40 years wandering through the Wilderness as a punishment. They received one year for every day they rejected the invitation. It is recorded that not one man who was present at the institution of the crossover, inherited the things they were going into possess. For even Moses, at the end of His life was able to look over at it from Nebo but never partook of it. They did not take possession of the gift given them. All of them died in the wilderness.

So after 40 years the new generation was to go forth. And they were led by Joshua. But before their crossover the Lord went to the Israelites once again in Deuteronomy 29 it spells out Abraham's Covenant.

The unique thing that separated this contract with the contract of the law is that there was no Bloodshed necessary to institute it. The writer of Hebrews says it like this, that by an oath and a promise things were confirmed. And so they were. "It was the end of all strife. No animal sacrifices necessary.

This Promise in the Abramic Covenant that was not isolated to an individual culture with their own language and their own things called the Jews, was opened up to include everybody and in so doing fulfilling the abrahamic Covenant we're by the Lord said to him that the Gentiles would be heir of faith. But the the old Covenant itself was only added temporarily as we've discussed in previous posts.

So this New Covenant from Deuteronomy 29 Estates at you'll be to your slaves that it will be to those who are not from among you and that it was not classified by eating certain things either because even like the Noah Covenant you could eat anything you wanted. For the kingdom of God is Not of what you eat and what you drink but righteousness peace and joy of the Holy Spirit the law do not provide this for the conclusion of that one was that there were none righteous no not one, not one was worthy by The Works of the flesh.

So we know when the fullness of time income that God sent forth his son born of a woman to expire the law, but even before this happened the Covenant was provided for in offered to others showing that it is a Timeless piece. Being from the kingdom before the foundations of the world.

And so to prove that this message, the contract Abraham and the father's being that Covenant, the proof that it is a Timeless piece is that when Christ was referring through Paul of the New Covenant Paul quotes Deuteronomy in that Passage that if One Believes In the heart and confesses with the mouth and not a visible thing at all. Had this Covenant only been offered during the time of Christ and thereafter than the Jews would have nothing to be condemned for but they themselves rejected it over and over even as witness by Isaiah Christ and Paul saying Isaiah was right in that you always reject the Holy Spirit. You see the Jews of old in the Jews today and even the Christians who are stuck in the law are ignorant of the abrahamic Covenant. The one that says to Abraham that in you all the nations of the Earth shall be blessed, was not reserved for a specific people. Even as this is repeated again in Galatians saying there is therefore no longer Jew or Gentile Barbarian or Greek male or female but we all have equal access based upon faith in a way that has nothing to do with our carnal classifications.

For even with milk acidic the high priest show that there was something that superseded and preceded the law. The bringing in of a better hope. That by the oath and A promise is a confirmation to end all dispute.

Mini think the abramo Covenant somehow leads up to the law in that the law is the objective in that Earth in Jerusalem is the objective. But all of those things were just added till Faith Comes. And Christ came to establish the oath and the promise that was visual through Abraham through mcheza deck and through the promise given to the Gentiles this is the purpose of God Judaism is not. I repeat Judaism is not the culmination in the goal of God.

Even as in the law it shows the lamb in the goat that was sent out and gets caught in the thickets in the thorns. Showing that that's all the law does is to bind up. For children of bondage. Paul referred to as the gospel of death. For even Christ fulfilled that picture. He became for us the lamb caught up in the thorns in the thickets of the law and having taken that dead document or better yet the document that produces death to the Cross he took it and they're openly exposed it and disarmed all powers and principalities who gained their momentum through the condemnation given by the law.

But somehow there are those today who cherish and relish the old in despise the new and in themselves fulfill the verse that says that they say the old wine is better but it is not. As it says in Hebrews that the law having a shadow of things to come could never take away sin or do anything. But they were only imposed till the time of reformation in Christ brought the Reformation.

Even today there are those that are trying their own reformation back to Judaism. Which is actually just a deformation. The law never made anything perfect but bringing in a better hope does. So the law was replaced. This living hope doesn't leave us in the wilderness. No no no. But takes us within the Veil. Even as Christ showed at his moment on the cross right adjusted to him and within earshot the temple shook and quaked so that even the ground was moved in the temple being torn from top to bottom showing that there was no resistance for anybody to enter. That salvation had come to the Gentiles. This is the objective of the Gospel. That all men might see.

But to the Jews the law was given as it says in Isaiah 26 it was given line upon line precept upon precept why? For them to be follow verse Nate snare taken back and get caught. That's the purpose of the law is to kill you. To kill those who go there who dwell therein there mental constructs. It is anti faith anti-god.

Even as it describes in the Book of Revelation that the 12 prophets are the gates to Heavenly Jerusalem. It was those men who had come on behalf of Christ being The Messengers of God pleading with the people for them to enter into relationship with the invisible one. And had they walked through the invitation into him who is invisible they would have walked out of that physical building. That physical building that was made with stones Hyun from Men's devising which is defined and described itself is idealistic and adultery in Exodus 20. These people were warned and had no excuse. And it is not that the profits will be the gates to a future Kingdom as many suppose, no much better than that they already were the gates to the kingdom when they open up their mouth had the people receive the word.
