

We are complete in Him part 2

We are complete in him who is head over all principalities and powers. Put another way, we are seated in the heavenlies in Christ. Having this puts us above and outside of reach of lower level turmoil. As scripture says "after you have suffered awhile may God perfect, establish you, and settle you" and so He did.

Scripture also says God "has delivered from the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of His Son". Us who "all our lifetime had been held captive to the fear of death" are fearful no more. Faith squelched that.

The fear of death is not a one-time dying but the continual fear of dying and losing of self by being driven by fear and spending yourself in covering your fear in policies.

Do not be deceived, we will all lose this life we call our self. All the promises, provision and policies from the gods of this age to protect and preserve your life will fail. You cannot stay here. You will lose yourself by degree. One incremental death, one loss of expectations at a time. This is your physical struggle because "Everything that can be shaken will be shaken for the eternal to remain" so what are you holding on to? Lets hope to have attained to the gift given, which is? Gods own self. "God has given us everything that pertains to life and Godliness through the knowledge of Him who calls us to glory". (2 Peter 1)

Eternity is the conclusion of all matter and the final destiny. To be found "In Christ" a perfect man in His fullness and likeness. It is what you do with yourself here that determines your outcome there. Nothing will be giving later to add to or supersede this. And the fact of the matter is, if we don't discover and aquire this gift now, we won't have opportunity to acquire Gods things later because the time is coming when it will be said ". ¹¹ He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him ^{be} righteous still; he who is holy, let him be holy still." the day of salvation will be over, and the opportunity to change will be gone. Once the eternal facts are without competition, choices cease and you will have made your own outcome by appropriating faith or fear. Therefore let us put on the things of Christ now lest we be found naked.

This is why we are called to redeem the time, because the days are whittling away. Today is the day of salvation. Today is our cross over point into the invisible physically portrayed in baptism and Passover. These were visible witnesses of invisible realities we attain now, if ye are willing and able.

Therefore it is important for us to understand that "we are beckoned by the spirit to be transformed into God's self same image today. Unless the gods of this age have you blinded you to acquire another image called false self sufficiency. By seeking to fortify yourself here by clothing your mind with empty promises from the Gods of this age. By doing so you are forfeiting the gift of God called eternal life.

What good does it do for someone to gain the world and lose their soul? But it is a choice you must exercise.

When the writer of Hebrews is talking about the fear of death he does not mean the one time act dying but the living in fear and protecting yourself from your fears with policies.

We have a choice. At each point we wake up to a new fear, we can fortify it with a provision of the god of this age, or a promise from God's word. You can be in the good hands of an insurance company, or be found "in Christ". God forbid that I be found in anybody's good hands but his. For I dare not insult him. He who said "I will never forsake you", will not watch idly while something bad happens to you. If you wear His provision of His promises, and not relax or find solace in the promises of the gods of this age, be it health care, retirement, and multiple insurance policies. To be found "in Him" is the safest place to be. As scripture says "We know those who say they are rich, but they are poor blind and naked. That would be these people.

So every time we come to this point in our inner dialogue where fear asks us.... it is here we can grab a hold of something Eternal, or turn in fear and fortify the hole on your shield.

Everything that we do for health care in for retirement for safety and security, are Provisions from the gods of this age to fortify Your Existence here. Who knows my friend if you will be around to spend your retirement. As James said, ² Your riches^[a] are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.³ Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have heaped up treasure in the last days. You are hoarding for yourself Treasures for the day of Wrath and revelation of the righteous Judgment of God who renders to each one according to their works. But we have a more enduring inheritance in heaven, the heavens of our mind.

He who loves the world, the love of the father is not in him. God has given us richly all things to enjoy however hold on to those things loosely.

So when the scriptures say that Christ came to deliver us from the subjection of fear from all of our lifetime. That is what this means. How we appropriate His word at that moment of fear. We step on that fear and replace it with faith. We reiterate the promises. And if this more enduring inheritance was only something to be experienced later, then it would be harder to hold out for. But because Christ has suffered at the cross for us, having taken away all the criticisms and condemnations and scare tactics, He shows for us here that because the payment is paid in full, the gift is rendered effective. And for this very reason not only does the fullness of the godhead body dwell in him, but we are complete in him who is the head over all principality and Power and have the Godhead too.

Meaning we are not waiting for something to come later. We are not exchanging one physical element for another but visible for invisible. These things are sewn corruptible, then raised incorruptible in the spirit of our mind, which is the place of our new existence. As we've spoken many times before that the heavens that are carnally known as being filled with stars and galaxies, is not as large as the expanse of our mind which grows bigger and bigger by the expansion of the Holy Spirit. And even as a worm cannot understand the life and flight of a butterfly, so then those who are driven by fear and controlled by fear and fortify themselves from that fear, cannot know or understand the life in flight of those who were born of the spirit. Even as Christ in his discourse with Nicodemus said, for the wind blows wherever it wants to. You can hear the sound of it but you cannot tell where it comes and where it goes, so too are those who are born of the spirit. Such are we. We are not fortified here of the promises of the God of this age for the supplicants of this age in the supplements of this age, oh no. Every time we have a fear we offer up to God his son the only sacrifice that is acceptable to him. His son is word. He has the word broken down and so therefore the promises of God in Scripture that find root in the Linings of your heart and soul, when the fear comes you offered that promise to God showing you are the sons of God. In this way we are shown to follow the spirit of God and confirm our identity as his children. He came to deliver those who are all their lifetime subject to the fear and the fear of death, we no longer fear those things. We no longer spend our times or fortifying our self against the inevitability that we will lose our self.

So if we lose ourselves in Christ, we gain everything. For what profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?

It is those who have gained everything in in this age that have nothing in the next. And it is those of us who have nothing in this age that have everything in the next age. And just as Christ was seeing writing as a peasant on a donkey up to Jerusalem was filled with the fullness of the godhead body, so we to walking incognito have these things that the glory in the essence may be of God and not of ourselves. Ourselves has been dumped out,. We have traded physical things for invisible things and only those of us who are Spirit born again can understand or received

For those who are looking at the man, or the peasant on a donkey and ask who are you? So many would say to us as well who are you? And our answer to that is, not the man. Not what you're looking at. These things are hidden from your site. Go on and sleep, the time has come.
