

Woe to the inhabitants of the world

Revelation, woe to the inhabitants of the Earth for Satan's coming down having great Wrath.

But we "overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of our testimony" of the things God has taught us . Those who are in heaven and whose names are written in the Book of Life.

Some of us have dual citizenship in that we not only dwell in heaven, but also dwell on Earth. However the events on earth have no hold over us. We were once children of Wrath but now we are no more. Those of us who are seated far above all principalities and Powers, dwelling in the heavens. You see there are those who have dual citizenship.

You see scripture says that speaking of Christ, as he is so are we in this world. As he is, not meaning as he was when he was on Earth, but as he is so are we on Earth. He has assumed his role in heaven from where he began. And there he sits and awaits our arrival. And some of us have clamored up the things God has said to be seated with him.

This is why Hebrews refers to those who are in Heavenly Jerusalem and Mount Zion called the spirits of just men made perfect.

So when scripture says that Satan comes down having great Wrath he has no hold on us. So when scripture says woe to the inhabitants of the Earth for Satan is coming down to you having great Wrath. We are not subject to that. We have passed from Death To Life. Satan is having coming down having great Wrath to the inhabitants of the Earth because they have rejected the Heavenly calling.

In the Old Testament it talks of how Moses would go in and out of the Tabernacle speaking to God. But then it makes me mention of Joshua who never departed from the Tabernacle. It was Joshua who was always in the Tabernacle with God because God was always Tabernacle in with him. Even as it says in John one of Christ rendered correctly Finn from the Greek that Christ became flesh and tabernacled Among Us.

The Book of Revelation refers to those who overcome or promise that they would be pillars in the house of our God. And so we are. We are pillars because we uphold the principles and truths and realities that make up the ubiquitous invisible Living God in whom Tabernacles in US. He who says I will never leave you or forsake you need not appear in a way that's common to human senses for it to be true or not. For Roman says he is the god gives life to the dead and calls the things that are not as though they are, because they are for some. As Christ is so are we in this world? This is our concurring reality. We see Satan's Works around us, but it is not directed at us nor does it have any effect on us.

Scripture instructs us the elect to not be concerned about what we shall eat or what we shall wear for even the Lilies of the Field or Raid and much more Glory than Solomon himself and how much more value are we than he. We are instructed not to be concerned about food, for he has given us the bread of life. And he is also promised that not a hair of our head shall be hurt.
